

The regular meeting of the Davis County Agricultural Society met January 6, 2010 at the Davis County Fairgrounds. Kevin Woods, President called the meeting together at 7 p.m.

Minutes were approved

Treasurer's report was read and approved. John Made a motion to pay the bills and Dean seconded and it carried unanimously.

The events scheduled for the 2010 fair so far are:

Sunday – peddle pull

Thursday - Horse races??

Horse pull – Friday afternoon, will need PA system, tractor 100 horse or larger, 200 cement blocks, volunteers to load and unload blocks and the cost is $1,500.

Thursday night – Sprint invaders $8,000 plus insurance plus the 3035 purse. There will be a senior citizens discount price for tickets to this race. Dewitt made this motion and Lonny seconded.

Wednesday night – Queen contest

Wednesday night – Tractor Pull

Antique tractor pull – Saturday morning, Motion by Stacy seconded by Brian, carried.

Saturday night – Music show

Ralph stated that the new south gates had been picked up. John Garnet will paint them when the weather permits as they have to be painted outside because of their size.

We will send a letter to the editor and apologize missing the handing out of the money and picture.

A hold has been put on Eric Church for the Saturday night music show. We have offered to pay $25,000.

Ralph made a motion to have the chuck wagon cooks again on Friday and Saturday. Jeff seconded the motion and it carried.

Gail stated that some of the antique tractor owners would like to have their tractors on the grounds longer. It was decided that they would parade on Wednesday night and stay Thursday

Costs associated with the antique tractor pull will be the sled and trophies.

Barb stated that the Rodeo Banquet will be Jan. 30th in Osceola and the Rodeo would buy tickets for someone to go if they wanted. No volunteers.

Ralph asked if the mowing contract could be advertised just as a three year contract so that all bidders would be bidding on the same thing. Last month we had agreed on a one year or 3 year contract. Brian made a motion and Stacy seconded that we let the bid for three year. Motion carried

Danny stated that he had some fair memorabilia and wondered if board members were interested in having more of it displayed. There would have to be another display case built or purchased to display the material.

Upon motion and vote the meeting was adjourned.
