

Davis County Fair Quilt Block Contest

Area quilters were invited to enter a quilt block contest. After purchasing a $5 tax deductible packet of fabric, blocks were made by contestants. The blocks will be on display during the fair, after which the blocks will be made into a beautiful quilt to be raffled at next year's Davis County Fair. Be sure to see the blocks while you are at the Fair!

Theme: Flowers from the Heartland

Rules:

1. Each contestant is receiving a packet containing 4 fabrics. Use at least 3 of the 4 fabrics. Add no other fabrics.
2. Each block must be 10 ½" x 10 ½" unfinished or 10"X 10" finished. Your block will not be judged if the size is incorrect.
3. Blocks may be appliqué, pieced or paper foundation pieced. If stabilizer is used in appliqué designs, please use light weight stabilizer. Heavy weight stabilizer is difficult to quilt thru.
4. The contest is limited to the first 50 people. Only one block per person. Blocks will be judged on creativity, best use of fabrics provided and workmanship.
5. Blocks will become the property of Davis County Agricultural Society.
6. Do not attach blocks to any backing.
7. Note: Quilt will be assembled on point - plan layout of your block accordingly.
